

The College of Artisans is returning to Warhammer World this August. Come and start a new hobby project or work on a current one utilising our Hobby Assistants who will be on hand daily to offer help and advice. A ticket to the college also allows free exhibition entry, an undercoating service, a Bugmans meal each day, daily visits by the Warhammer Studio modelling team and you will spend an evening learning painting techniques from the World renowned 'Eavy Metal paint team!

Ticket Price: £150

Times:

10am-6pm Monday 29th July – Friday 2nd Aug
10am-6pm Monday 4th Aug – Friday 9th Aug

Event Schedule (subject to change):

- Monday This is your chance to settle in, meet the other college attendees and get started on your project.
- Tuesday Guided Exhibition Tour.
- Wednesday 'Eavy Metal workshop (evening).
- Thursday Hobby Workshop (evening activity).
- Friday Gaming/Home.

Activities available:

Hobby Assistants: Each day the College will be run by staff from the store and supported daily by the Warhammer World Events Team. Each day members of the Warhammer Studio Modelling team will be on hand to offer help and advice as you work through your hobby projects.

Guided Exhibition tour: The Warhammer Studio team are going to be doing guided tours of the exhibition, taking customers round and answering questions about how the dioramas have been built. Attendees will also get unlimited access to the exhibition throughout the week.

Meet the Warhammer World Studio Modelers: The team will be coming up during the day at different times to offer advice and help to the customers as they are working.

'Eavy Metal: The world famous 'Eavy Metal team will be running a painting evening exclusively for College of Artisan attendees. The team will be demonstrating some of the techniques used to create the stunning miniatures you see in White Dwarf, and will then be on hand to give help and assistance as you try them out.

Warhammer World Hobby Workshops: The Warhammer World store will be running an extended hobby workshop to show off skills and techniques that can help you develop your army projects. These will be themed during the week to suit the projects that you bring.

Gaming Opportunity: Gaming can be enjoyed throughout the week. Just chat with your fellow attendees and ask staff about reserving a gaming table. On Friday, celebrate how much of your project you've completed with the opportunity to play against other attendees using the models you've been working on.

Undercoating Service: Warhammer World will be offering a free undercoating service to all attendees. There will be approximately three undercoating sessions a day where the models built can be taken and undercoated by the experienced Warhammer World Staff. Spray Undercoat will be provided.

Food: You will receive lunch each day from a special College of Artisans menu created by Bugman's Kitchen. Make your choices for the week on Monday so you'll have lunch and a soft drink of cordial ready for you each day at your reserved seating in Bugman's Bar.

Tools and knives:

- You will need to bring your own hobby supplies (paint, brushes, glue etc) to the College of Artisans event. Please also be aware that we do not allow hobby knives in Warhammer World.

Age Limit for attendees and Closing Times:

- The event is open to attendees aged 16+ and aged 12-15 with a guardian.
- Warhammer World will shut at 6pm on Monday and Tuesday. Wednesday to Friday we are open till 10pm.

Attendees will also receive a special College of Artisans event pack when they arrive to help you out with your time at the College....

And of course you can enjoy Warhammer World as all visitors do! Browse the entire Games Workshop range in our flagship Warhammer store, and the world's only Forge World and Black Library shops, explore five areas of miniatures and dioramas in the Exhibition, do battle in our hall full of free-to-use gaming tables, feast in Bugman's Bar, and take home a special souvenir from our range of exclusive merchandise.
