When building your army, use all the most up-to-date rules found in the following publications:

- Warhammer: The Old World – Forces of Fantasy

- All up-to-date FAQs and Errata. Publications released up to one week before the event may also be used at this event

Army lists should be presented in a format that's easy to read. Please record your General, Lore(s) of Magic, Magic items, all relevant weapon selections and unit upgrades that should be selected before a game.

SCENARIOS

You will play four games of Battle March using the rules presented on pages 19-20 of Arcane Journal – The War of Settra's Fury. At this event, the number of battlefield objectives and the deployment map will be pre-determined for each game. Each game will end after five rounds have been played, or 75 minutes have passed.

SCORING AND PAIRING

The player with the most wins will be the winner. In the case of a tie, the players will be split using the following tiebreakers, in order of priority:

- Victory Points scored

Your opponent for your first game will be randomly determined. Subsequent rounds will be organised using a Swiss system, following the above ranking. If you find yourself facing an opponent you have previously faced, please talk to a member of the events team.

PAINTING COMPETITION

During the lunch break between the second and third games, players will have a chance to display their armies on the table where they played their first game. Players will then have an opportunity to vote for the army they feel is the best, be that for painting, conversions, or anything else worthy of recognition. The player whose army receives the most votes will win the Best Painted award. Ties will be broken by the event organisers' vote. This is instead of the single miniature painting competition rules described in the Weekday Warhammer Overview and Guidelines Document.
